

PILGRIM CHURCH

In announcing his sermon topic for Sunday, February 18, the Rev. Mr. Estes said, "Although I understand there is discussion of a new school building, this is not to be construed as a partisan appeal for a return to the old concept of reading, writing, and arithmetic. Neither is it an attempt to have you re-evaluate the basis on which you are supporting the church, nor will it, even though I am personally conscious of the need, offer any constructive guidance for the favorable calculation of your income tax. And it probably won't help you in helping your youngsters with his arithmetic. But I do believe that actively participating in this service of worship will add values to your life. Why not try it? Incidentally, if the service is not helpful it at least will not be harmful and cannot do the slightest damage to any of your friends. Why not invite some of them to join with us?"

FIRST PARISH CHURCH

Sunday morning services have been discontinued in February during Mr. Lion's vacation.

At 9:45 A.M. the Church School meets at the Parish House, under the direction of Miss Margaret Elliott, superintendent.

The Women's Alliance meets for sewing Thursday, Feb. 15, at 10 A.M. at the Parish House. At one P.M. a covered-dish luncheon will be served. In the afternoon Miss Margaret Elliott will show a new series of kodachromes.

The Evening Alliance will give a Cabaret Party on Saturday evening, Feb. 17, for all members with their husbands and guests. Music will be furnished by Mrs. Richard Crocker and Mr. Jackson Kent.

The Youth Group will meet with Mrs. Daniel Ellis on Sunday, Feb. 18, at 6 P.M. to continue their work in decoration.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Mrs. Benjamin F. Barnwall of Church St. will be in charge of the second covered-dish supper which will be held at St. John's Parish House tonight.

HOLY FAMILY CHURCH

The Duxbury Catholic Women's Sodality held their annual banquet at Hobomock Inn in Pembroke on Tuesday, Feb. 6. Outgoing officers were presented with corsages, and Mrs. Clarence J. Smith, president of the Sodality during the past year, received a missal. Mrs. Luther Hansen, the newly elected president, welcomed new members and said she looked forward to another successful year.

Next Sunday is Boys' Communion Sunday. Lenten devotions are held Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. There is a sermon, Stations of the Cross, and benediction. The choir is rehearsing for Easter. Anyone wishing to take part please remain after the Wednesday evening Lenten services.

GLASS-BROWN WEDDING

Miss Janet Glass, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Glass of Island Creek, was married last Thursday in Plymouth to Mr. George H. Brown, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Brown of 3 Emerald St., Plymouth. Justice of the Peace Herbert K. Bartlett performed the ceremony.

Mr. Brown was drafted into the Army the day after the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Foster of Summer St. have a new daughter, Janet Murray Foster, born Feb. 7 at Jordan Hospital. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas E. Foster of Newton and Dedham and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Miller of West Newton.

RECREATION AND YOUTH CENTER

Nick La Greca, chairman, presided at the regular monthly meeting of the Tarklin Recreation and Youth Center. Mrs. Jilio Benevides told the group that if she could gather enough news items the Clipper would run a special column for Tarklin. If you have any news items call her.

It was voted that an article for the town warrant seeking $1,000 for the recreation center be accepted as read. Mrs. Charles Hall resigned as chairman of the refreshment committee, and Mrs. Nick La Greca was named to fill the vacancy. There was a discussion about ads for the new card tables. It was voted that each member take a table home and do his best.

A baked ham-and-bean supper will be held the first Saturday in March, with Paul April, chairman. In charge of various departments are these volunteers: Mrs. Emily Loring, baked beans; Mrs. Nick La Greca, salads; Mrs. Phil Cope, relishes and butter; Mrs. Joe De Lorenzo, pies; Mrs. Charles Hall, coffee, sugar, milk; Nick La Greca, advertising; Charles Hall, tickets and returns; Lorraine April will be a waitress, Mrs. Lewis Randall, hostess. Philip Rapdall will be in charge of procuring the food.

Paul April reported on teen-age parties. It was voted that he split the group and have Saturday night for the younger ones who don't dance and reserve Friday for the older teen-agers. It was voted to send cards to Mrs. Anthony Bongiorno and John White, who have been in the hospital. The treasurer requested that the books be audited.

Nancy Brock Tutor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Brock of Washington St., is moving to Indianapolis this week. Her husband, Sgt. William B. Tutor, will be stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

THE ROYAL FAMILY

Has anyone asked you, "Wasn't that John Barrymore I saw you talking with the other day?" Or perhaps there is a rumor around town that Ethel Barrymore has been seen in Duxbury. Beneath the smoke of suspicion that Great Doings are afoot is the fire of fact—the P.T.A. Players are polishing up "The Royal Family" for production Friday evening, February 23, at 8:30 p.m. at the Duxbury High School Auditorium.

REAL ESTATE

Mr. Roscoe Chandler, who is building a cottage on his land off West St., has leased his house off Washington St., to Mrs. Richard J. Arrowsmith, formerly of New Hampshire, whose husband is a Captain in the Army Reserve. Her three children are Sandra, Richard, Jr., and Frederick. Mrs. Arrowsmith is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Richard W. Lewis of Washington St.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Bartheaux have bought the Robert T. Lantz house. The deed held by Herick B. Williams has passed to Mr. and Mrs. George J. Hodder.

Mr. John Marshall is building a house on a hilltop overlooking Bay Road. Mr. and Mrs. William Salsman of Depot St., are building a ranch-type home on Captain's Hill.

Dr. Francis C. Ortolani of Plymouth has bought the Clement A. Briggs property on Crescent St.

Mr. Richard Halliday has bought the Fred Wadsworth house on Tremont St. Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth and their family have moved into the former Edward McNulty house in Island Creek, which Mr. Halliday sold them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector M. Holmes of Duxbury and Chestnut Hill have just bought the Alexander Dorey house on Washington St. They sold their house and property on Fort Hill Lane to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Scott of Surplus St.

The following transfers are reported from the real estate office of Percy L. Walker:

Anne K. (Mrs. Philip R.) Allen of 271 Dartmouth St., and formerly of Walpole to the Carl A. Weyerhaeusers, 203 School St., Milton. This is the property off Powder Point Avenue which has been occupied for several summers by the Hamilton Thayers.

Mrs. William Wood McCarthy of Short Lane, Duxbury, has sold her "Wisswall" property on Washington Street to Mrs. MacLure Wilson of 209 Beacon Street, Boston.

Miss Helene Harley of 270 Washington Road, Grosse Pointe 30, Michigan, and Abrams Hill, Duxbury, has sold a lot of land located off Washington Street to Mr. Winthrop Coffin.

The first two Meeting Houses in Duxbury were located on Chestnut St. They were built in 1683 and 1707, respectively. The third Meeting House was built in 1785, the fourth in 1843.

JEAN SCOTT BEHIS, Director
A-1 RATING

This slightly mad play by those masters of sprightly comedy, George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber, is the story of a "royal family" of the stage. Although the situations are not strictly based on the actual lives of the Barrymore clan, this fabulous family of several generations of stage talent and fame provided the types. There is Fanny Cavendish—(George Drew Barrymore?) the grand matriarch of the talented and temperamental tribe. Julie—(Ethel Barrymore?) who is solid, both in her acting ability and her responsibility to her family. Tony—(John Barrymore?) who tears back and forth in a mad rush between Hollywood and "this new-constructivist scenery," always pursued by the spectre of breach of promise. Keeping in the spirit of the acting-family idea, Duxbury, too, has incorporated families in the cast, even to the introduction of the littlest Eaton in the last act.

No advance revelation is being made as to which P.T.A. Player represents which character. But if a certain person starts racing through your best parlor followed by hallboys, Indian servants, or reporters, you will know before your friends that HE is Tony. Undaunted by the necessity of stairs and a balcony, plus several telephones, assorted mad scenes, and even a couple of romantic interests, the P.T.A. Players can reasonably promise that on the night of February 23 at the High School Auditorium things will be lively. Tickets can be obtained through one of Mrs. O. L. Barker's salesmen. If you have not met one, (and they are anxious to meet you!) please call Mrs. Barker to arrange for tickets.

Don't miss THE event of the winter theatre season. If you want to "get in on the act," call Mrs. W. C. Wray, Jr., to paint the sets on Saturday, February 17; or Mrs. Kenrick Denyer to help with the props which go toward making this play a Director's nightmare and an audience's delight.
